

Week 3

Exercise One

For each essay topic research question, brainstorm what problems or issues the writer could encounter. Discuss ways to fix the problem.

1) How many servings of fruits and vegetables should a person eat each day?

Standard changes overtime.

↑
different person

2) Is it important to exercise every day?

form of exercise.

which exercise is the best daily in a long run.

3) What are the pros and cons of legalizing marijuana and what can the government do to ensure an orderly rollout of legalized marijuana?

Is the pros outweighs of cons ----

What's the best legal approach to ----

4) What are the reasons for the rise and fall of the popularity of fad diets?

driving forces of the cycle nature

5) What are the most important health issues for young people around the world?

6) What are the major differences between Canada and Denmark?

Standard.

7) Why is Supersize Me such a bad movie?

8) Why do people act stupidly and choose to destroy their health by smoking?

↑ bias.

Exercise Two

Read the following article together and brainstorm research questions based on the content.

<https://www.cbc.ca/news/health/alcohol-warning-labels-cancer-1.6304816> type of essay? - argumentative.

easy to read? - yes. Using subtitles to divide.

type of evidence? - cites from other's words/news
i.e. page ref.

Books. page refs.

good paper? - Yes. detail in reference.

other thing?

should US build more nuclear power plants in the future?

future => in the next two decades.

environment reas

cost