

Wait until the next class to check the quizzes marked or not.

Quiz #1

1. Metaphor example: He was cheated in the race.
2. It will be a barrier to communication, it is sometimes the audiences not understand; not professional.
3. False! No final exam. \Rightarrow Major final paper.
4. Due to the fact \Rightarrow Because.

Criminal and burglars? \Rightarrow Is there no criminal burglar?
burglar.

The notice of the policeman \Rightarrow Policeman.

p.s. the word "policeman" is kind of one dated.

5. It is a passive construction

e.g. fireman

\Rightarrow firefighters.

Writing in the Disciplines:

Humanities: Explore human beings and their cultures:

i.e. art, history,

Social Science: How human beings

i.e. anthropology, sociology, psychology, economics.
history for

Nature Science: living things

Biology, Chemistry, Space Science, zoology.

Applied Science: CompSci, Material Science.

1. Understand the assignment
2. Understand discipline vocabulary
3. Identify the style of your discipline: how essays constructed and words used, how footnotes are used.
4. Don't use "I" in the essay.
4. Understand the use of evidence. Also how much evidence are to be used.
5. Use conventional pattern and formats.
Title pages, side pages and references

Sentences - all have two things: subjects and verbs.

Grammarly:

complete thought

simple

compound: and, or, etc...

complex: subordinate clause joined to the main clause.

Functional:

declarative: end with a .

interrogative: ask a question ?

imperative: request / giving a command:

the subject will be "you"

exclamatory:

Variety in Sentences variety

Strike a balance in structure and length

Don't make a sentence too long. => Boring to read.

Coordination: gives equalities to two sentences.

Subordination:

Paragraphs: 3 - 10 sentences.

introduction

body

conclusion

>10 => lose focus.

probably need to be split.

What is an essay?

Specific structure. and focus.

Purpose:

Writing an essay:

1. Topic/Purpose

2. Generate Ideas.

Cluster ideas

Subdividing

3. Tentative

working thesis.

4. Outline

keep thesis sentence at the top.

main point 1, main point 2,

WinterSports

Thesis

- 1 sentence that is supported.

- Open ended enough

WinterSports

Skating

Snowboarding

Cold

Snow

Injure

Thesis:

good: Wintersports can improve our health status.

It is easy to get injured in wintersports.

bad: Wintersports are fun.

Let's go wintersporting!

Winter Sports.

fun

skiing

cold

skating

injure

snowboarding

snow

competitive

healthy

popular